To uphold the integrity of our legacy, YWCA Quad Cities has adopted an intentional approach to creating programs and events that align directly with our mission: eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all.

YWCA Quad Cities is proud to present the YES SHE CAN Series. The vision of this program is to educate women on various topics and increase awareness on pressing issues facing women and girls in today’s world and doing this by offering a variety of community events. These events will be open to the public, will be held throughout the year (with a goal of averaging at least one event per month), and the majority having LITTLE or NO registration fee. Event topics could include: early childhood education, STEAM education, housing, civil rights, fair wages, sexual assault, health awareness, youth leadership development, self-image, and race relations. The overall objective of this program is to educate, train and empower the community to make a social impact so women and girls can lead a successful career and life.

The YES SHE CAN Series is open to ALL WOMEN – all colors, incomes, shapes, sizes, ethnicities, religions and points of view! If you are wanting to learn, grow, connect and flourish in a community of acceptance and belonging than the YES SHE CAN Series is perfect for you!

Structured similar to a chamber membership model, individuals pay an annual fee to be a member of the Y(ES) SHE CAN Series. All revenue for the YES SHE CAN Series is raised through securing individual memberships and annual corporate partners, which will be used for the sole purpose of providing The YES SHE CAN Series programming. Opportunities for corporate partnerships are also available, see below.
